1. Acting under instructions given by General Nicolae Rădescu, Colonel Daniel Ivanovici, presently residing in Paris, has taken action to begin the collection of personal data on Rumanian refugees opposed to Communism who might later be enrolled in a Rumanian armed force. Colonel Ivanovici is said to have sent instructions to his liaison officers, who have not yet been identified, in various countries. No instructions concerning Rumanian refugees have been sent to Turkey since Colonel Ivanovici as yet has no liaison among the Rumanian emigres there.
2. Liaison officers have been instructed to assemble personal data on individuals secretly, and to prepare "preliminary tables of organization" to reach Colonel Ivanovici before the end of March. Necessary personal information will be elicited by frank conversations, although liaison officers have been instructed to use discretion in talks with refugees who are not considered entirely trustworthy. Registers will be prepared for both men and women.
3. The following data will be gathered:
  - a. Surname and first name.
  - b. Place and date of birth.
  - c. Military history, if any, including dates of service and dates of promotion, military schools attended, military specialty, combat experience, Rumanian and foreign decorations, wounds, information on time and place captured if prisoner of war.
  - d. Civilian occupation.
  - e. Present address.
  - f. Address of place of employment.
  - g. Date departed from Rumania.
4. The so-called "table of organization" will include statistical data under the following headings:
  - a. Active officers
  - b. Reserve officers
  - c. Non-commissioned officers
  - d. Enlisted men
  - e. Individuals able to carry out secret missions behind enemy lines.
  - f. Individuals completely trustworthy
  - g. Doubtful individuals.
